

Part 1 Example Questions

The result of an association rule mining can suggest that it would be beneficial to the grocery store owner if certain set of grocery items are placed at the same location, such as in the same aisle. True or False

Classification is supervised learning and clustering is unsupervised learning. True or False.

A boxplot is a visualization of the five number summary True or False

When we standardize a variable using the z-score method, we must use the variance of the variable as the denominator. True or False

Cluster sampling method samples individual objects. True or False

Assignment Project Exam Help

<https://tutorcs.com>

WeChat: cstutorcs